Dear Mr. Bellow,

I enclose a third entry from Gollancz, The Least and Vilest Things by Elizabeth North. Although publishers are not allowed to submit more than two titles I have been asked very strongly by Gollancz to allow them to make three entries. I went back to the Working Party of the Booker Prize and asked the opinion of the two Chairmen (John Murphy for Bookers and Raynor Unwin for the Publishers Association) whose opinion was that the judges were at liberty to consider the third entry or not as they chose.

Yours sincerely,

Marilyn Edwards
